

7.3 Institutional Distinctiveness:

The College endeavors to realize its vision by educating and empowering women through the ideal blend of Arya Samaj rules propounded by Swami Dayanand Saraswati. We at A.K.M.V Shahabad provide a distinctive environment supporting heritage and cultural values of karma and social commitment. According to the ideas of Arya Samaj our institution promotes women education. Our Institution facilitates all the streams in education to promote the girls education.

The college looks towards a tomorrow where our students are competent enough to assimilate the changes of the progressive world without losing their distinctive identity as the products of Indian tradition and heritage. This exclusive practice gives us an edge to contribute such young lines to the society that assure to safeguard the special place that Indian enjoys in the international platform. A distinctive activity conducted regularly to achieve this end is the “Haven Ceremony” as per the Vedic Sanskriti (tradition). The girls and the staff participate in this sacrament to gain the advantage of peace and serenity amidst the chanting of mantras.

In addition to these practices, efforts are underway to include alternative healthcare programmes, like regular OPD by renowned gynecologist of our area.
